10月14日に氷川神社が行う「例大祭」を起源とし、直後の「神幸祭」 「山車行事(祭礼)」から成り立つ関東最大級の祭りです。注目は、蔵 造りの町並みを中心に町中を曳行される絢爛豪華な山車。何台もの 山車が辻で相対し、すれ違う様は、そのスケールの大きさに圧倒さ れます。江戸天下祭の影響を強く受けて発展し、その流行に合わせ て変化してきたこの祭りは、370年以上の時代を超えて天下祭の様 子や風情を今に伝えています。

A ritual scroll painting depicting magnificent floats carrying elaborate dolls as they parade through a townscape of storehouse-type architecture.

The grandest festival in Kanto taking root in the "Reitaisai" festival and held at Hikawa Shrine on October 14, consisting of the "Jinkosai" festival and "Float Event (festival)", which are held immediately afterward. One of the main features is the impressive floats being transported down the streets lined with storehouse-type structures as well as other parts of town. It is overwhelming to see multiple floats face each other as they cross paths on the street. This festival was developed while being strongly influenced by the Edo Tenka Festival and has evolved along with the trends. It is over 370 years old and continues to preserve the atmosphere and scenery of the Tenka festivals.

It is offered every year on the anniversary of Hoyo's death, November 28, at Hoyo Temple, which is where his grave is located. The dance believed to have been performed by Sumikore Omura, the Omura clan's 16th feudal lord, when he regained control of their territory has continually been passed down ever since for roughly 500 years. ### Grand Kagura performers who do lion dances in various regions gather once a year as a sacred offering!

Ise Dai Kagura travels across Japan to perform lion dances for people who cannot visit Ise Shrine. In the past, they distributed Ise Shrine talismans but they now distribute talismans of the Ise Daikagura Kosha association. They show what it was like to visit the Ise Shrine, full of recreation and faith during the Edo period, as opposed to the visits today, which are more solemn. The five existing masters start visiting their respective parishes in the morning of New Year's Day and visit various regions throughout the year. They then return to Masuda Shrine when December comes again and give lion Kagura and equanimity performances as their last Kagura offerings of the year.

Horses dancing to the sound of music! The traditional performing art of the Lunar New Year that was revived in 2008.

A traditional performing art of the Lunar New Year that has been passed down in the intermontane area at Enzan Ichinose Takahashi, Koshu City, Yamanashi Prefecture, which is over 1,000 meters above sea level. It consists of horse dances performed to music played with flutes, drums, handbells, and singing. Starting at the home of the leader, the procession used to go down to roadside deities and homes to dance while giving special congratulations. These were offered using rituals involving the pouring of water and the swinging of sticks to families that had weddings, childbirths, or the building of new homes. However, this was placed on hold in 1989 due to the declining population. Thankfully, the preservation society was restructured in 2008 by determined people from Ichinose Takahashi, who then changed locations and were able to revive it.
